July

Issue 07

Dear All Saints' Community,

Summer seems to slow us down, and that's appropriate for the hot weather, but please consider putting some energy into your church in July and August! Volunteers are needed for Vacation Bible School, the ECW Yard Sale, Sunday coffee hours, and gardening. (There are also openings for flower and candle donations).

And, of course, we gather for worship each and every Sunday at 8am and 10:30am! Adult Classes continue throughout the summer as does Wednesday 11am Bible Study. If you haven't been to those groups in a while (or ever!), come and see what there is to be learned on a summer's day.

Also, consider visiting one of the homebound members of our elder community – they would love to see you! Give me a call and I will give you a suggestion for visiting.

Please check out the new website, and give your feedback to me. Your ideas for the All Saints' community are always appreciated.

Let's live up to our mission statement:

Living and Sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Peace,
Patricia+

Dinner Church

Sunday, July 31st at 5:30pm
in Smith Parish Hall

On Sunday, July 31st we will have two services: 8am Rite I and 5:30pm Dinner Church Rite II. There will be no 10:30am service that day.

We will meet in the Parish Hall – please bring a dish of any kind to share, and, if necessary, please split it into container sizes that can be easily passed around a table (for example, put a casserole into two dishes instead of one 9x11 pan). All dinner food and beverages will be on the tables where we eat, and will be passed around, family style. Desserts will be on a side table, to be served after the Eucharist and our meal. Please come at 5pm to get all of the dishes out on the tables, so we can start with everyone seated, at 5:30pm.

Instead of the usual sermon, we will partake in a different experience of our only reading for the day, the gospel passage (which is Luke 7:36-8:3, for those of you who want to read ahead). I will read the gospel and give some contextual information, and we will have table discussion about what particularly struck you from the text. I will read the gospel again, and we will hear brief input from the tables and close with a prayer.

The consecrated bread (real bread!) and wine will be passed around the tables so we can commune each other. This will be a wonderful teaching opportunity for the children. If you have any questions about this community celebration of the Eucharist, please contact me.

This will be the last Sunday that the Pilat family will be at All Saints'. Please come to send them off with our love and support.

Also, Gavin Kenner will make a presentation about his experiences in South Africa.

I look forward to this experience of the Body of Christ!

Seminarian Fund

The 5:30pm Dinner Church service on July 31st will be the last day that our Postulant, Jenn Pilat, and her family will be at All Saints'. The next day they will move to Alexandria, Virginia where Jenn will begin her studies at Virginia Theological Seminary on August 4th. Jenn is enrolled in the three-year program leading to a Master in Divinity degree and subsequent ordination as a Transitional Deacon and Priest in the Episcopal Church.

The loose plate collection of the third Sunday of every month is traditionally set aside by All Saints' for a special project. Since Jenn became a Postulant in February 2016 the collection has been put into a Seminarian Fund. Please remember Jenn and her family each month on the third Sunday. The third Sunday of July is the 17th. Also, feel free to donate money to the fund any time. Make the check out to All Saints' and note in the memo of your check "Seminarian Fund." Donations are tax deductible contributions to All Saints'. Our treasurer will distribute the funds before each semester. Any donations will be greatly appreciated and wisely used.
