September/October 2019 Newsletter

September, 2019

Dear All Saints' Community,

By the time you are reading this I will have just completed my Celtic Pilgrimage to sites in Scotland and England. I have been drawn to Iona (a remote island north of Glasgow) and Lindisfarne ("Holy Island" off the coast of Northern England) for many, many years. Both are holy sites where abbeys were built centuries ago and where pilgrims have ventured for as many years.

I hope I will have stories to share about this adventure – both spiritual experiences as well as relational experiences with our hearty band of 19 and with those whom we will meet along the way.

The next part of my journey will be with my family and that will be another sort of adventure! You are in good hands while I am gone, and you will be in my prayers. Please also pray for me as I undertake this fantastic journey.

See you soon!

From the Altar Guild

The green growing season of Pentecost continues in September and October. It is lovely to see the beautiful colors of the flowers on the altar to enhance this growing season. There are openings on the flower and candle chart for September and October. The Altar Guild appreciates the support of this self-supporting ministry.

A minor change- if you are unable to pick up your flowers on your scheduled Sunday, please make arrangements for someone else to get them. If not possible, the flowers will be placed outside the sacristy (in the back hallway, called the ambulatory) for you to get during the week. Also, if possible, please return the plastic vase used to send flowers home. It would be great to reuse these vases.

As always, the Altar Guild is open to new members helping with this ministry. Don't want to do it alone? We can partner people together. Contact: Barbara Robinson

United Thank Offering

Counting your blessings BIG and small makes a local and global impact for the good of all. Bring your blue boxes for All Saints' Ingathering on October 27th.

2019 UTO Grant Awards

The United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of The Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. Through UTO, individuals are invited to embrace and deepen a personal daily spiritual discipline of gratitude. UTO encourages people to notice the good things that happen each day, give thanks to God for those blessings and make an offering for each blessing using a UTO Blue Box. UTO is entrusted to receive the offerings, and to distribute the 100% of what is collected to support innovative mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church and Provinces of the Anglican Communion.

WOW! The UTO Board announced the 2019 regular United Thank Offering Grant recipients. Thirty-three grants were awarded this year, totaling $1,535,740.55. The recipients of your generosity stretch near and far in a variety of ways.

Upper South Carolina: Voorhees Scholars Program, $7,700 Fifteen middle school students, recommended by school counselors, will participate in a summer program at Voorhees College. The curriculum will expose them to the college environment with emphasis on team-building, self-expression, and environmental and social justice issues. The Scholars will also attend monthly Saturday sessions through the following year.

Utah Justice: Through Transportation $18,945.46 We seek reliable transportation for the Sudanese refugee members of our congregation. This will facilitate attendance at church worship, link congregants to community resources, and ensure children can attend Sunday School and enriching youth offerings. This project will bring together families throughout the 807 square miles of Salt Lake County.

Sri Lanka, Diocese of Colombo Oppuravillam: Furthering Our Mission of Reconciliation and Peace, $33,064 This project will restore Oppuravillam, House of Peace and Reconciliation, to be a center for educating and empowering adults, young adults, and children in the principles of "Becoming Beloved Community," which are especially important after years of war and its tragic toll on our communities. We seek to build a community of reconcilers, justice makers, and healers.

Dear All Saints' Family,

I know that I speak for all of the students at Cayce Elementary as they send a great big "THANK YOU!" for the book bags and school supplies. Might I say that WE FILLED 31 BOOKBAGS WITH LOTS OF SUPPLIES LEFT OVER! This is the most ever that we have filled completely! I am so filled with gratitude for all of you that donated supplies and funds to keep this project going. It is so fulfilling knowing that we are helping those students in need. They will never know our names or we theirs, but we are quietly doing the work Jesus has called us to do.

As you recall, the guidance counselor, Morgan Smith, and I have worked together on this project since last year. She will hand them out to the most needy as always. She sends her heartfelt thanks to us as we have helped these students not be embarrassed for not having a nice, new bookbag and supplies to begin their school year. All I can say is "Thanks Be To God" for you, my All Saints' family!

Blessings and Love, Delores Goodwin

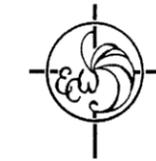

ST. MARY'S GUILD

All ladies are invited to attend St. Mary's Guild on the first Monday of each month, except during the summer. We are ready to start our meetings now on Monday, September 9, at 6:00 pm in the parish hall. We are studying Proverbs using a study book and the Bible. Iris Kleinlercher will have the lesson on chapters 12-13. We alternate meals and lessons each month. If you would like to join us, please note that you do not have to lead a lesson, as I know this is a hindrance to some. We fellowship, have good food, and learn more about our Christian life as we are called through Jesus' teachings and ministry. Please see me if you have any questions.

Thanks, Delores Goodwin

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

The Ocean, The Tree and Me

Oh, my how big and small I feel, intertwined.

This world full of mystery is blinding at times.

Out of the corner, questions begin of how insignificant I think I am.

The ocean, so blue, deep, and wide.
The ebb and flow of the tide.
The drawing in and out waves so high.

The horizon so close I can almost touch the sky.

The shells tossed, broken and worn in time.

Shelter for the smallest handcrafted creatures on and off the shoreline.

The sand giving a sure footing and quickly runs away.

Leaving me staggered yet yearning for more of the bay.

The sun glows and glistens my skin.
My insides are stirring, yet relaxing within.

God at work around me, revitalizing again.

The tree, so tall, strong, and vibrant.

The limbs stretching out to embrace.

The shade provides rest for the weary.

The leaves offer life giving breath it creates.

The knotted scars of lost branches heal over time.

The Spanish moss attaches, and little ferns leaves spring out.
Hollow circles give rest to the four-legged travelers.

Just as the mile-high nest gives refuge and comfort to a new little feathered one.

Towering above and touching the heavens I look in awe.

What is old is made new again.

This is what the Lord wants to be known by all.

His wonders never cease to amaze me and question myself along my lifeline.

If I would only open my eyes, to view all the glory He created

For each of us to enjoy in our time.

Grace & Peace,
Rebecca Kenner

Fresh Start in September
and October

We will be collecting deodorant, razors, toothpaste, and sanitary products in September and October. But remember that they always need plastic bags and men's and women's clothing, especially in large sizes. All Saints' volunteers usually go to volunteer on the fourth Saturday of each month (September 28 and October 26), but you can volunteer any time.
They are open every Thursday and the second and fourth Saturdays from 10am-3pm. Even an hour of your time is appreciated, and any age can help out (children need to have an adult with them). Contact Shirley Page or Rebecca Kenner if you have questions.

Christian Formation
News & Notes

We are ready to kickoff the year for Sunday School.

Sunday School begins on September 8th at 9:30am with Sing-along with Miss Judy and crafts for all ages. After September 9th, the groups will split into two groups, younger elementary (Pre-K to Grades 3) and older elementary/middle (grades 4-middle school). One group will meet in the large classroom at the end of the hallway and the other will meet in the Christian Education Room next to the Ladies room. The younger group will be working with "Invitation to the Table" curriculum.
The older group will begin the year in Cross Year of the ECC and use
"Church Times" to read, explore and learn throughout the year.

We are looking for teacher volunteers who have completed
"Safe Church Training." Please let Rebecca Kenner know if you are interested. A semi-annual calendar with Sunday School dates will be posted outside of each classroom.

ECW Lunch and Fellowship

ECW members and guests met for lunch and fellowship at Red Lobster on July 16th. It also happened to be our pastor's birthday! We elected Iris as our new treasurer and Frances will be her backup.

Delores announced that the 98th Annual ECW Convention will be held here at All Saints' on October 19th.
